Representative Experience

Corwyn brings a wealth of paralegal experience to the Firm's litigation department. She supports the litigation department with case and document management and organization, written and electronic discovery, law and motion matters, and legal and factual research. In her career, Corwyn has supported litigation teams in jury trials, arbitrations and settlements—several of which were in the seven to nine figure range. Corwyn has substantial experience in trial and arbitration preparation and support, as well as with post-proceedings submissions.
