Representative Experience

Lisa is a senior paralegal with a broad base of experience that includes corporate, real estate and entertainment transactions. Prior to joining Eisner, Lisa worked with other highly regarded law firms in Los Angeles, San Francisco and her hometown of New York City.

Lisa has extensive experience with the formation, organization and maintenance of corporate entities; corporate governance related matters, and the establishment, review and coordination of data rooms for merger and acquisition transactions. In the real estate area, Lisa's experience includes preparation of commercial real estate ancillary documents, including bills of sale, assignments and assumptions of intangible property, grant deeds, FIRPTA certificates, and tax forms. Lisa's entertainment-related work has included assistance with the preparation of talent and other agreements, preparation of guild applications, and copyright registration, recordation and searches.
